MAY PARTY .- The scholars of Mrs. Elizabeth F. Marceron's school—about thirty little girls and boys, from five to fourteen years of age—entertained themselves and friends yesterday by a May party. The exercises consisted of the election and coronation of a Queen of May, addresses, &c., and singing by the children. The little folks were all very tastefully arrayed in white, with red, white and blue sashes, and most of them crowned with wreaths of roses, and other fragrant and beautiful flowers. All the scenes, addresses, &c., tended to some fact or fancy in floral history. All the children understood their parts perfectly, and did very well. Miss Augusta Mead was chosen Queen of May, and the coronation ceremony was gracefully conducted. One pretty little girl—little Nelly Darr—not yet six years of age, declaimed "The Little Maid;" and for one so young did it excellently. Teachers, friends and scholars were mutually entertained and in-

Pocker Picking .- On Thursday last, at & sale in the First Ward, several of the pickpocket fra-ternity were present to practice their arts, and it was not long before a lady missed her pocket book containing about six dollars. The salesman becoming aware of suspicious characters, warned the ladies to be careful of their money, at which time two young men were seen to leave hastily. They were at once pursued, and near the corner of Eighth and I streets one of them, who gave his name as George Williams, was overhauled by patroiman James Johnson and city constable O'Couner, who had a long chase after him. Forbes, soldiers at the Douglas hospital, were arrested by detectives Allen and Kimball upon a charge of stealing $87 from a discharged soldier named Sheshan, who was wounded in the fight at Lewinsville. They were taken before Justice Donn and searched, but no money was found on them. It appears that Sheshan, with the prisoners, were sitting in a tent at the hospital, when a newsboy came in. GEN. BANKS ATTACKS THE REBELS WITH BRILLIANT SUCCESS BEYOND MARTINSBURG.

A dispatch from Gen. Banks to the Secretary of War, which was received at 2 p. m. to-day, states that the 5th New York cavalry, Col. De Forrest commanding, entered Martinsburg this morning, and passed several miles beyond, where they encountered the enemy's cavalry.

They captured several prisoners, a wagon, muskets, ammunition, and an American flag. Col. De Forrest reports that Col. Kenly is at Winchester, wounded.

FROM FRONT ROYAL. Our Army in Repossession There. Capture of 150 Prisoners and 11 Rail Road Cars.

Recapture of Union Troops Taken by the Enemy. A dispatch received this morning at the War Department states that a brigade of our troops, preceded by four companies of the Rhode Island cavalry under Major Nelson, entered Front Royal yesterday morning, at 11 o'clock, and drove out the enemy, consisting of the 8th Louisians, four companies of the 12th Georgia, and a body of cav-

Our loss is eight killed, five wounded, and one missing; all from the Rhode Island Cavalry. We captured six officers and one hundred and fifty privates. Among the officers are Captain Beckwith West, 48th Virginia; First Lieut. Gemmell, 8th Louisians; Lleuts. J. K. Dickson and Waterman, 19th Georgia. We recaptured eighteen of our troops taken by the enemy at Front Royal a week ago, among whom are Major Wm. F. Collins, 1st Vermont cavalry; George H. Griffin, Adjutant 6th New York cavalry; Lieut. Duryea, 8th New York cavalry; and Frederick Tarr, Adjutant Maryland infantry. We captured a large amount of transportation, including two engines and eleven ratiroad care. Our advance was so rapid the enemy was surprised, and therefore not able to burn the bridges across the Shenandoab.

A dispatch from the Associated Press reporter gives the names of our killed as follows, all of the Rhode Island eavalry: Captain William P. Ainsworth, Corporal John C. Babcock, Corporal D. B. Barffard, Edward K. Barnard, Cyrus A. Brackett, Calvin Cushman, Ben. Lashure and E. B. Allen.

The loss of the enemy is not yet accertained, but is said to be large, as our cavalry cut in among them in splendid style.

THEIR LINE OF RETREAT. It is not yet positively known here to or for what point the army of Besuregard retreated from Corinth, though the impression continues to prevail that they have made direct for Okalona. The fact that Gen. Halleck has taken 2,000 prisoners, and that their retreat evidences the thorough demoralization of the rebel army, goes to invalidate the idea thrown out by Price in conversation (just previous to their retrent) that their purpose was to retire but a few mlies, to the end of endeavoring to fank Halleck. The fact is, the operations of Mitchell on their right flank, and of our fleet in the Mississippi on their left flank, in embarrassing their communications and threatening to embarrase them still more shortly, made a decisive fight or a precipitate flight from Corinth necessary on their part. It strikes us that they must have made for Okalona, because it seems to be the only point left them for keeping up longer the semblance of the railroad communications necessary for any further considerable operations or strategic move. ments. It is at the crossing of the Mobile and Oblo zattrond (near Aberdeen, Mississippi,) with what is known as the Grand Southern cross railroad, from Natchez almost due east. A retreat to it, however, necessarily leaves Memphis aimost wholly at the mercy of General Halleck, to say nothing of Chattanooga.

The truth is, each step backwards thus taken by the rebel armies exposes more than one point of importance to their general defence: which being gained one by one by our armies, serve to weaken their chance of successful defence far more than the public at large now comprehend. Ten to one the retreat from Corinth will promptly liberate East Tennessee, and make the expression of secession proclivities as dangerous everywhere thoughout that State as it now is, evidently, in Maryland.

CONGRESSIONAL. SENATE.-Mr. Wilson introduced a bill to enable persons held to service to establish their right to freedom under the act of August 6, 1861;

Mr. Davis offered a resolution for the appointment of a select committee of five to investigate and report on the official conduct of Adjutant General Thomas; laid over. Mr. Hall reported, from the Naval Committee, a resolution to compensate the officers and crew of the steamer Varuna for certain losses; passed

Mr. Trumbuil reported back from the Judiciary Committee, the House resolution, according an additional member of Congress to the State of California; passed. Mr. Wilson called up the bill authorizing the acceptance of certain volunteers, and limiting tetal number to 700,000, which was debated by Messys, Wilson, Trumbull, Fessenden, Sherman and Grimes.

SHOOTING a SOLDIER.—It is reported on the streets, to-day, that a row occurred yesterday at a house kept by a man named Ransell, near the aqueduct, and that a soldier was shot, and erverely if not fatally wounded, by a young man named Nace Walker. Walker, it is said, has been arrested and put in irons, to be delivered to the proper authrities.
